timely intimation of the death or retirement of such officials may be given by the Heads of Offices to the Deputy Commissioners concerned with statement showing the details of the amounts due by them as soon as any such occurrence takes place among the members of their establishment.

2. They are also requested to intimate whether the officials have insured their lives, and if so, whether the fact of indebtedness to Government has been noted in the casualty reports sent to the Secretary to the Insurance Committee, so that necessary steps may be taken for the speedy adjustment of the amounts due to Government.
